Drivers briefing will take place at 9.30am on Saturday at the base of the Pit Lane Complex stairs and 9am on Sunday at the grass venue HQ. NZ Superlap drivers briefing will be at 9:15am on Sunday at the base of the Pit Lane Complex stairs.

8. THE EVENTS

SATURDAY:

- The Sealed Motorkhana will be four low-speed tests around cones set on various parts of the circuit. The time starts from the start box and ends with the vehicle stationary in the finish box. A knocked over cone adds 5sec to the competitor's time. Two runs per test per competitor will be timed. The best run per test counts. Safety apparel not required.

- The Sealed Autocross will be one lap of the full 4.5km circuit in reverse direction. To control speeds chicanes will be placed on the straights and at the junctions between the 3.0km circuit and the 1.5km circuit.

All competitors will complete a sighting tour in convoy behind a lead vehicle. Competitors will be timed a maximum of three runs. The best run time counts. Safety apparel is compulsory.

For a run competitors will line up in pit lane and be released onto the circuit via Pit Exit. They will turn tightly back towards the start line for a flying start. They will continue around the course in reverse direction, negotiating the chicanes until they cross the finish line for a flying finish. Drivers will need to brake hard to turn right into the pit exit. They will re-join the field in Pit Lane for the next run.

SUNDAY

- The Grass Motorkhana will be up to four low-speed tests marked out with road cones. The time starts from the start box and ends with the vehicle stationary in the finish box. A knocked over cone adds 5sec to the competitor's time. Two runs per test per competitor will be timed. The best run per test counts. Safety apparel not required
- The Grass Autocross will be one run of approximately 3kms of the Manfeild grass area from a standing start box. Competitors will negotiate the cone markers and finish the run stationary in the finish box. A knocked over cone adds 5 sec to the run. Up to three runs per competitor will be timed. The best run counts. Safety apparel is required.
As with the Sealed Autocross competitors will complete a sighting tour of the run in convoy behind a lead car
- NZ Superlap Circuit coaching sessions for will take place after Drivers Briefing and before the first run. An experienced MCC race driver will take new drivers around Manfeild in the Safety Car. Superlap Groups 1 to 4 will be released in order fastest to slowest for 12minute sessions throughout the day. The fastest single lap completed in the timed Group sessions counts towards the result.
